OTHER IMPORTANT PROGRAM INFORMATION:
Individuals who already have a grad degree and DPD VS will complete the internship plus four classes in one year to receive a DI VS. Tuition is $13,200 but subject to change. Those w/out a grad degree will need to complete the dept's MA in Family & Consumer Sci along w/ the DI to receive a DI VS. Tuition for MA/DI is $19,672 ($23,636 non-resident) & subject to change. The MA & DI require 1.5-2 yrs to complete & may include summers. Typical accepted applicants have a strong DPD GPA, sig work/vol exp in dietetics or another area that provides transferable skills relevant to DI, & strong interpersonal & comm skills. Interns that are mature, motivated, flexible, interested in learning, & have strong time mgmt, interpersonal, & org skills are most successful. Applicants that are interested in working w/ diverse pops &/or bilingual are encourage to apply. A car is rpd. A one hour commute each way to rotations can be expected as the norm. We have a supportive program director & long-time faculty. All rotations scheduled by program director, w/ intern input. Interns do not need to find own rotations. Interns will take courses together, in-person & online. See website for updated
